Recent Developments in Data Protection Law

9 April 2021 | 10:30 AM -12:00 PM

In our "Business Brunch digital: Recent Developments in Data Protection Law," we will shine a light on recent developments in various areas of data protection law. You will be receiving recommendations concerning implementation of the GDPR and the Federal Data Protection Act in practice, as well as information about key court rulings and opinions from the data protection authorities.

You will receive an overview of recent decisions by German and European courts which are particularly relevant for your company in practice, with an emphasis on decisions relating e.g. to damage claims filed by data subjects and rights of access to information.

We will also discuss the latest developments with regard to international data transfers. What do companies need to keep in mind if they use service providers in third countries? How can compliance be ensured and documented?
